

Lowell Downtown Master Plan Steering Committee & Project Staff Team

A Steering Committee has been formed to guide the Lowell Downtown Master Planning process. The Steering Committee is made up of Lowell residents that represent a diverse range of backgrounds, and interests. The volunteer Committee is composed of existing members of the Planning Commission, Economic Development Committee, Parks and Recreation Committee, and at-large residents. It will be the Committee’s responsibility to guide progress, review deliverables, provide feedback, promote community involvement and provide direction to staff. Members of the Steering Committee include:

Steering Committee Members	Affiliation(s)
Robert Burr	Economic Development Committee, Fire District Representative
William George	Economic Development Committee, Business Representative
Michael Galvin	Economic Development Committee, School Representative
Lisa Bee-Wilson	Economic Development Committee
Jerry Bjornstad	Economic Development Committee
Pat Woodhurst	Parks and Recreation Committee
Don Swain	Planning Commission
Lon Dragt	At-Large Member
Aaron Graham	At-Large Member

The Downtown Master Plan project staff team is providing expertise and support for the project. The City of Lowell has secured grant funding through the Oregon Department of Land Conservation and Development (DLCD) to pursue a Downtown Master Plan. Lane Council of Governments (LCOG), which the City of Lowell is a member of, is working with local decision makers and stakeholders to prepare the Plan. A local urban design firm, The Urban Collaborative, has been contracted to help conceptualize the City’s ideas and ultimate vision for Downtown.
